- c. During the HAP contract term, HOM will pay housing assistance payments to the owner in accordance with the HAP contract.

- b. HOM has approved leasing of the unit in accordance with requirements of the Permanent Supportive Housing program.

- d. The owner certifies that:
 - 1. The owner and the tenant have entered into a lease of the contract unit that includes all provisions of the tenancy addendum.
 - 2. The lease is in a standard form that is used in the locality by the owner and that is generally used for other unassisted tenants in the premises.

3. Maintenance, Utilities, and Other Services

- a. The owner must maintain the contract unit and premises in accordance with the housing quality standards (HQS).
- b. The owner must provide all utilities needed to comply with the HQS.
- c. If the owner does not maintain the contract unit in accordance with the HQS or fails to provide all utilities needed to comply with the HQS, HOM may exercise any available remedies. HOM remedies for such breach include recovery of overpayments, suspension of housing assistance payments, abatement or other reduction of housing assistance payments, termination of housing assistance payments, and termination of the HAP contract. HOM may not exercise such remedies against the owner because of an HQS breach for which the family is responsible, and that is not caused by the owner.

- d. HOM shall not make any housing assistance payments if the contract unit does not meet the HQS, unless the owner corrects the defect within the period specified by HOM and HOM verifies the correction. If a defect is life threatening, the owner must correct the defect within no more than 24 hours. For other defects, the owner must correct the defect within the period specified by HOM.
- e. HOM may inspect the contract unit and premises at such times as HOM determines necessary, to ensure that the unit is in accordance with the HQS.
- f. HOM must notify the owner of any HQS defects shown by the inspection.

 2. HOM must pay housing assistance payments promptly when due to the owner.
 3. If housing assistance payments are not paid promptly when due after the first two calendar months of the HAP contract term, HOM, Inc. shall pay the owner penalties in accordance with generally accepted practices and law, as applicable in the local housing market, governing penalties for late payment by a tenant. However, HOM shall not be obligated to pay any late payment penalty if late payment by HOM is due to factors beyond HOM's control. Moreover, HOM shall not be obligated to pay any late payment penalty if housing assistance payments by HOM are delayed or denied as a remedy for owner breach of the HAP contract (including any of the following HOM remedies: recovery of overpayments, suspension of housing assistance payments, abatement or reduction of housing assistance payments, termination of housing assistance payments and termination of the contract).

8. Security Deposits and Reimbursement for Unpaid Rent and Damages

- a. When the family moves out of the contract unit, the owner, subject to State and local law, may use the security deposit, including any interest on the deposit, as reimbursement for any unpaid rent payable by the tenant, any damages to the unit or any other amounts that the tenant owes under the lease.
- b. The owner must give the tenant and HOM a full list of items charged against the security deposit, and the amount of each item. After deducting the amount, if any, used to reimburse the owner, the owner must promptly refund the full amount of the unused balance to the party who paid the security deposit.
- c. If the security deposit is insufficient for the reimbursement, or if the owner did not collect a security deposit, the owner may claim reimbursement from HOM for an amount not to exceed the lesser of:
 1. The amount owed the owner after application of any security deposit; or

If the unit continues to remain vacant, the owner may request from HOM a housing assistance payment in the amount of the total monthly rent to the owner for a vacancy period not exceeding one additional month, or the expiration of the lease, whichever comes first.
 2. If the owner collects any of the family's portion of rent for the additional month, HOM's payment shall be reduced to an amount which, when added to the family's payment does not exceed the total monthly rent to the owner. The owner shall reimburse HOM for any excess.
 3. If the owner evicts the family, the owner shall not be entitled to any payment under this section unless HOM determines that the owner complied with all the requirements of the contract and all applicable State and local laws.
 4. The owner shall not be entitled to any payment for the vacated unit to the extent that the owner is entitled to payment from other sources.

 - c. A business or economic reason for termination of the tenancy (such as sale of the property, renovation of the unit, the owner's desire to rent the unit for a higher rent).
 - d. The examples of other good cause in this paragraph do not preempt any State or local laws to the contrary.
4. In the case of an owner who is an immediate successor in interest pursuant to foreclosure during the term of the lease, requiring the tenant to vacate the property prior to the sale shall not constitute other good cause, except that the owner may terminate the tenancy effective on the date of transfer of the unit to the owner if the owner:

- a. Will occupy the unit as a primary residence; and
- b. Has provided the tenant a notice to vacate at least 90 days before the effective date of such notice.

This provision shall not affect any State or local law that provides for longer time periods of additional protections for tenants.

9. Protections for Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

- a. Purpose: This section incorporates the protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking in accordance with subtitle N of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994, as amended (codified as amended at 42 U.S.C. 14043e et seq.) (VAWA) and implementing regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L.
- b. Conflict with other Provisions: In the event of any conflict between this provision and any other provisions included in Part C of the HAP contract, this provision shall prevail.
- c. Effect on Other Protections: Nothing in this section shall be construed to supersede any provision of any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection than this section for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- d. Definition: As used in this Section, the terms “actual and imminent threat,” “affiliated individual,” “bifurcate,” “dating violence,” “domestic violence,” “sexual assault,” and “stalking” are defined in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L. The terms “Household” and “Other Person Under the Tenant’s Control” are defined at 24 CFR part 5, subpart A.
- e. VAWA Notice and Certification Form: HOM shall provide the tenant with the “Notice of Occupancy Rights under VAWA and the certification form described under 24 CFR 5.2005(a)(1) and (2).
- f. Protection for victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking:
 1. The landlord or HOM will not deny admission to, deny assistance under, terminate from participation in, or evict the Tenant on the basis of or as a direct result of the fact that the Tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, if the Tenant otherwise qualifies for admission, assistance, participation, or occupancy. 24 CFR 5.2005(b)(1).
 2. The tenant shall not be denied tenancy or occupancy rights solely on the basis of criminal activity engaged in by a member of the Tenant’s Household or any guest or Other Person Under the Tenant’s Control, if the criminal activity is directly related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the Tenant or an Affiliated Individual of the Tenant is the victim or the threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. 24 CFR 5.2005(b)(2).
 3. An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of the incident. Nor shall it not be construed as other “good cause” for termination of the lease, tenancy, or occupancy rights of such a victim or threatened victim. 24 CFR 5.2005(c)(1) and (c)(2).
- g. Compliance with Court Orders: Nothing in this Addendum will limit the authority of the landlord, when notified by a court order, to comply with the court order with respect to the rights of access or control of property (including civil protection orders issued to protect a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking) or with respect to the distribution or possession of property among members of the Tenant’s Household. 24 CFR 5.2005(d)(1).

- h. Violations Not Premised on Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking: Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any otherwise available authority of the Landlord to evict or the HOM authority to terminate the assistance of a Tenant for any violation not premised on an act of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that is in question against the Tenant or an Affiliated Individual of the Tenant. However, the Landlord or HOM will not subject the tenant, who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, to a more demanding standard than other tenants in determining whether to evict or terminate assistance. 24 CFR 5.2005(d)(2).
- i. Actual and Imminent Threats:
1. Nothing in this section will be construed to limit the authority of the Landlord to evict the Tenant if the Landlord can demonstrate that an “actual and imminent threat” to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property would be present if the Tenant or lawful occupant is not evicted. In this context, words, gestures, actions, or other indicators will be construed as an actual and imminent threat if they meet the following standards for an actual and imminent threat: “Actual and imminent threat” refers to a physical danger that is real, would occur within an immediate time frame, and could result in death or serious bodily harm. In determining whether an individual would pose an actual and imminent threat, the factors to be considered include: the duration of the risk, the nature and severity of the potential harm, the likelihood that the potential harm will occur, and the length of time before the potential harm would occur. 24 CFR 5.2005(d)(3).
 2. If an actual and imminent threat is demonstrated, eviction should be used only when there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat, including, but not limited to, transferring the victim to a different unit, barring the perpetrator from the property, contacting law enforcement to increase police presence, developing other plans to keep the property safe, or seeking other legal remedies to prevent the perpetrator from acting on a threat. Restrictions predicated on public safety cannot be based on stereotypes but must be tailored to particularized concerns about individual residents. 24 CFR 5.2005(d) (4).
- j. Emergency Transfer: A tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking may request an emergency transfer in accordance with HOM’s emergency transfer plan. 24 CFR 5.2005(e). HOM’s emergency transfer plan must be made available upon request, and incorporate strict confidentiality measures to ensure that HOM does not disclose a tenant’s dwelling unit location to a person who committed or threatened to commit an act of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against the tenant;
- For transfers in which the tenant would not be considered a new applicant, HOM must ensure that a request for an emergency transfer receives, at a minimum, any applicable additional priority that is already provided to other types of emergency transfer requests. For transfers in which the tenant would be considered a new applicant, the plan must include policies for assisting a tenant with this transfer.
- k. Bifurcation: Subject to any lease termination requirements or procedures prescribed by Federal, State, or local law, if any member of the Tenant’s Household engages in criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, the Landlord may “bifurcate” the Lease, or remove that Household member from the Lease, without regard to whether that Household member is a signatory to the Lease, in order to evict, remove, or terminate the occupancy rights of that Household member without evicting, removing, or otherwise penalizing the victim of the criminal activity who is also a tenant or lawful occupant. Such eviction, removal, termination of occupancy rights, or termination of assistance shall be effected in accordance with the procedures prescribed by Federal, State, and local law for the termination of leases or assistance under the housing choice voucher program. 24 CFR 5.2009(a). If the Landlord bifurcates the Lease to evict, remove, or terminate assistance to a household member, and that household member is the sole tenant eligible to receive assistance, the landlord shall provide any remaining tenants or residents a period of 30 calendar days from the date of bifurcation of the lease to:

1. Establish eligibility for the same covered housing program under which the evicted or terminated tenant was the recipient of assistance at the time of bifurcation of the lease; 2. Establish eligibility under another covered housing program; or
3. Find alternative housing.

l. Family Break-up: If the family break-up results from an occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, HOM must ensure that the victim retains assistance. 24 CFR 982.315.

m. Move with Continued Assistance: The public housing agency may not terminate assistance to a family or member of the family that moves out of a unit in violation of the lease, with or without prior notification to the public housing agency if such a move occurred to protect the health or safety of a family member who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking; and who reasonably believed they were imminently threatened by harm from further violence if they remained in the dwelling unit, or if any family member has been the victim of sexual assault that occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period preceding the family's request to move.

1. The move is needed to protect the health or safety of the family or family member who is or has been a victim of domestic violence dating violence, sexual assault or stalking; and
2. The family or member of the family reasonably believes that he or she was threatened with imminent harm from further violence if he or she remained in the dwelling unit. However, any family member that has been the victim of a sexual assault that occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar day period preceding the family's move or request to move is not required to believe that he or she was threatened with imminent harm from further violence if he or she remained in the dwelling unit. 24 CFR 982.354.

n. Confidentiality.

1. The Landlord shall maintain in strict confidence any information the Tenant (or someone acting on behalf of the Tenant) submits to the Landlord concerning incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, including the fact that the tenant is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
2. The Landlord shall not allow any individual administering assistance on its behalf, or any persons within its employ, to have access to confidential information unless explicitly authorized by the Landlord for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to the information pursuant to applicable Federal, State, or local law.
3. The Landlord shall not enter confidential information into any shared database or disclose such information to any other entity or individual except to the extent that the disclosure is requested or consented to in writing by the individual in a time-limited release; required for use in an eviction proceeding; or is required by applicable law.

10. Eviction by court action. The owner may only evict the tenant by a court action.

11. Owner notice of grounds

1. At or before the beginning of a court action to evict the tenant, the owner must give the tenant a notice that specifies the grounds for termination of tenancy. The notice may be included in or combined with any owner eviction notice.
2. The owner must give HOM, Inc. a copy of any owner eviction notice at the same time the owner notifies the tenant.
3. Eviction notice means a notice to vacate, or a complaint or other initial pleading used to begin an eviction action under State or local law.

12. Lease: Relation to HAP Contract

If the HAP contract terminates for any reason other than the tenant rent portion equals the contract rent, the lease terminates automatically.

13. HOM Termination of Assistance

HOM may terminate program assistance for the family for any grounds authorized in accordance with program requirements. If HOM terminates program assistance for the family, the lease terminates automatically unless the assistance was terminated due to the tenant rent portion equals the contract rent.

14. Family Move Out

The tenant must notify HOM and the owner before the family moves out of the unit.

15. Security Deposit

- a. The owner may collect a security deposit for the dwelling unit. Either the tenant or HOM will pay the security deposit for the dwelling unit.
- b. When the family moves out of the contract unit, the owner, subject to State and local law, may use the security deposit, including any interest on the deposit, as reimbursement for any unpaid rent payable by the tenant, any damages to the unit or any other amounts that the tenant owes under the lease.
- c. The owner must give the tenant and HOM a list of all items charged against the security deposit, and the amount of each item. After deducting the amount, if any, used to reimburse the owner, the owner must promptly refund the full amount of the unused balance to the party who paid the security deposit.

16. Prohibition of Discrimination

In accordance with applicable equal opportunity statutes, Executive Orders, and regulations, the owner must not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, familial status or disability in connection with the lease.

17. Conflict with Other Provisions of Lease

- a. The terms of the tenancy addendum are prescribed by HOM as a condition for assistance to the tenant and tenant's family under the Permanent Supportive Housing program.
- b. In case of any conflict between the provisions of the tenancy addendum as required by HOM, and any other provisions of the lease or any other agreement between the owner and the tenant, the requirements of the HOM-required tenancy addendum shall control.

18. Changes in Lease or Rent

- a. The tenant and the owner may not make any change in the tenancy addendum. However, if the tenant and the owner agree to any changes in the lease, such changes must be in writing, and the owner must immediately give HOM a copy of such changes. The lease, including any such changes, must be in accordance with the requirements of the tenancy addendum.
- b. In the following cases, tenant-based assistance shall not be continued unless HOM has approved a new tenancy in accordance with program requirements and has executed a new HAP Contract with the owner:
 1. If there are any changes in lease requirements governing tenant or owner responsibilities for utilities or appliances;

2. If there are any changes in lease provisions governing the term of the lease;
 3. If the family moves to a new unit, even if the unit is in the same building or complex.
- c. HOM approval of the tenancy, and execution of a new HAP Contract, are not required for agreed changes in the lease other than as specified in paragraph b.
 - d. The owner must notify HOM of any changes in the amount of the rent to owner at least 60 days before any such changes go into effect, and the amount of the rent to owner following any such agreed change may not exceed the reasonable rent for the unit as most recently determined or redetermined by HOM in accordance with program requirements.
